

Memo

To: Tulare County Board of Supervisors
From: Samantha Terry, Child and Youth Development Council Manager
Date: 10/23/2024
Re: Bylaws Revisions

The Tulare County Council on Child and Youth Development made changes to the Council Bylaws. The Bylaws were approved by the Council at the August 15, 2024, meeting. Attached you will find the agenda that displays the Bylaws as a consent item. The proposed changes are highlighted in the attached document.

Revisions to the Bylaws are required to be submitted to the state once it receives approval the Council, an authorized representative to the Superintendent of Schools and approval from an authorized representative to the Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Hire approved the Bylaw Revisions and a copy of his approval is included for your convenience. The last approval needed is one from an authorized representative from the Tulare County Board of Supervisors. Once all agencies have approved of the changes, I will forward the updated Bylaws to the California Department of Social Services

Please sign below and send back to me if you approve of the changes that have been made to the Council Bylaws.
